A. Product Description

A Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) requires a low level of capital investment and therefore enables investors to participate with a leverage in the price performance of the Underlying. It can be used as speculative instrument or for hedging purposes. With a Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) the Holder profits from falling prices of the Underlying. A Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) has a fixed Redemption Date. If the Underlying reaches or rises above the Strike Price at any time during the life of a Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end), the Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) expires immediately and the residual value is zero.

B. Prospects for Profits and Losses

Market expectation

A Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) offers the possibility to benefit from changes in the prices of the Underlying with a leverage effect. Investors in a Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) expect the Underlying price to fall.

Risk tolerance

Due to the leverage effect, the value of the Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) will fluctuate more than the value of the Underlying. An investment in a Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) therefore bears a higher risk than a direct one to one short investment in the Underlying. Investors in this product should be experienced investors being familiar with derivative products, leverage and the Underlying. Investors are willing to take a higher risk compared with a direct one to one short investment in the Underlying in order to achieve a higher profit potential.

Profits potential

A Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) benefits disproportionately from a negative price performance of the Underlying. The profit potential for a Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) is limited given the Underlying cannot go below zero.

Loss potential

Holders may lose some or all of their invested capital but the maximum loss is limited to the initial capital invested. A Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) has a fixed maturity, but in case of the occurrence of a Knock-out Event, the Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end) will be automatically early redeemed at an amount equal to 0 (zero).

The risk for an investment in a Knock-Out Warrant Put (closed-end), which is significantly greater than it would be for a direct one to one short investment, is based not only on the leverage effect, but also on the occurrence of a Knock-out Event. Please also review the Early Redemption and Issuer and Guarantor Risk factors below.

C. Significant Risks for Investors

General

An investment in the Certificates involves a high degree of risk, which may include, among others, price risks associated with the Underlying(s), interest rate, foreign exchange, market, time value and political risks.

Potential investors must have the knowledge and experience necessary to enable them to evaluate the risks and merits of an investment in the Certificates. Prospective investors should determine, based on their own independent review and such professional advice (including, without limitation, tax, accounting, credit, legal and regulatory advice) as they deem appropriate under the circumstances, that the acquisition and holding of the Certificates (i) is fully consistent with their financial needs, objectives and condition, (ii) complies and is fully consistent with all investment policies, guidelines and restrictions applicable to them and (iii) is a fit, proper and suitable investment for them, notwithstanding the clear and substantial risks inherent in investing in or holding the Certificates. In making such determination, an investor should consider carefully all the information set forth in the Final Terms and the Base Prospectus.

No Capital Protection

The Certificates are not capital protected at any time. There is a risk of partial or total capital loss, and therefore an investment in the Certificates is highly speculative, involving significant risk, including the possible loss of the amount invested, and should therefore only be considered by persons who can afford a loss of their entire investment.

Index Linked Risks

An investment in Certificates linked to an Index entails significant risks not associated with an investment in a conventional debt security. On redemption Holders will receive an amount determined by reference to the value of the Underlying, the Conversion Rate and the leverage. Potential investors should take advice accordingly. The movements in the level of an index may be subject to significant fluctuations that may or may not correlate with other indices, changes in interest rates or currencies and the timing of changes in the relevant level of the index may affect the actual return to Holders, even if the average level of the index is consistent with their expectations.

Early Redemption

The Terms and Conditions in the Base Prospectus provide for early redemption on the occurrence of force majeure, illegality and certain other events affecting the Underlying and/or the hedge, whereupon the Calculation Agent shall calculate the fair market value of each Certificate less the cost to the Issuer and/or its affiliates of unwinding any underlying related hedging arrangements, all as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion. Payment will be made in such manner as shall be notified to Holders in accordance with Condition 10 of the Certificates as set out in the Base Prospectus.

The amount that Holders receive as a consequence of such early redemption may be less than the initial capital invested per Certificate and even zero. Holders who choose to reinvest monies received as a consequence of early redemption of the Certificates may be able to do so only in securities with a lower yield than the redeemed Certificates.

Issuer and Guarantor Risk

Certificates are unsecured obligations: The Certificates retention of value is dependent not only on the development of the value of the Underlying(s), but also the creditworthiness of the Issuer and the Guarantor, which may change over the term of the product. The Certificates are direct unsecured obligations of the Issuer and will rank pari passu with all other direct unsecured obligations of the Guarantee are unsecured obligations of the Guarantor and will rank pari passu with all other direct unsecured obligations of the Issuer. The obligations of the Guarantor under the Guarantee are unsecured obligations of the Guarantor and will rank pari passu with all its other present and future unsecured obligations, subject as may from time to time be mandatory under French law.

In addition, the Issuer's and the Guarantor's ability to fulfil their obligations under the Certificates may be affected by certain other factors, including liquidity risks, market risks, credit risks, cross-border and foreign exchange risks, operational risks, legal and regulatory risks and competition risks.

Secondary Market Risks

Under normal market conditions, the market maker appointed by the Issuer intends but is not obliged to maintain a secondary market on a regular basis throughout the life of the product. Neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor nor the market maker appointed by the Issuer is under any obligation to provide bid- or ask-prices for a specific order or volume and there is no commitment on a specific liquidity or on a specific market making spread. Hence investors cannot rely on being able to purchase or sell the product on a specific date or at a specific price.

Market Risk

The market value of, and expected return on, the Certificates may be influenced by a number of factors, some or all of which may be unpredictable (and which may offset or magnify each other), such as (i) the development of the value of the Underlying(s) (ii) economic, financial, political and regulatory or judicial events that affect the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Underlying(s) or financial markets generally, (iii) interest and yield rates in the markets generally, (iv) the time remaining until the Redemption Date (vi) the creditworthiness of the Issuer and the Guarantor and (vii) foreign exchange rates.

Additional Risks

In addition, investors should read the section in the Base Prospectus entitled 'Risk Factors'.
